

was not at home when you got my letter, but never the less you are all right don't you think so, sweet one,

You are mistaken I have no other girl no where if there is a chance not yet I know of it and I hope your little fellows will not stay mad at each other for it is an unpleasant feeling for any one to be mad.

You said you would tell me in your next letter you would be sure to tell me, for I want to have her as soon as I can. I am enjoying very good health at present. I am truly glad to know you are in good health and enjoying the same good health.
I have no news that will
